MAY FIGHT TO A FINISH

PROSPECTS FOR SETTLING THE
FREIGHT HANDLERS' STRIKE
ARE SLIM.

NEW PROPOSALS ARE MADE

Employers and Employees Will Have Another Conference, but Little Is Expected From It—Teamsters, Longshoremen and Ice Haulers Are Aiding Their Fellow Workmen All They Possibly Can.

Chicago, July 14.—Final overtures for the settlement of the strike of freight handlers and teamsters were made at meetings of the two unions. At the instigation of the members of the Chicago board of arbitration the freight handlers agreed to send committees to all the railroads. This agreement was made after the board had announced to the union men that eight of the largest railroads entering Chicago had agreed to pay 17 1/2 cents an hour to trackers and pay for overtime and to do away with the demand for a probationary period of service.

The general managers of two railroads agreed to no such proposition. They agreed that when the committees shall visit the railway offices the roads will offer them the same terms as those which were rejected by the union men. The statement of the general managers destroyed the hope of a settlement of the strike on a basis of terms suggested by the general managers of the railroads.

Even if the general managers had not insisted upon maintaining their position it is not probable that a settlement could be effected. The freight handlers agreed to make another effort to reach a settlement with the railroads only to please the teamsters, who previously had endorsed the attempt of the board of arbitration to settle the strike.

There is an apparent lack of evidence of sincerity in the attempt to make a serious effort to settle the controversy.

President Curran of the Freight Handlers' union stated that the committees will insist on the payment of 15 cents an hour instead of 17 1/2 cents, which the railroads are reported to have offered. He also stated that the freight handlers will make no more overtures and hereafter will reject all proposals which shall not stipulate for the payment of the wage scale as formulated by the union and the recognition of the union.

With the general managers and unions both maintaining these respective positions it is believed that there is slight chance for a settlement and that when this opportunity shall have vanished it will be a fight to a finish.

Every teamsters' union that has members handling freight in Chicago voted to take teams off the freight depots. The longshoremen of Chicago, who were only partially organized, have been formed into a union. They are in sympathy with the freight handlers, but may inaugurate an independent strike of their own if an advanced scale for loading and unloading big lake steamers is refused.

Ice haulers have agreed not to ice refrigerator cars nor to visit railway yards. This is virtually a sympathetic strike and until the railways shall settle the trouble with the freight handlers the ice storage plants along the railway lines will have to be closed.

The coal teamsters at a meeting determined that no men of the union shall go near the railroad freight sheds during the strike. While there is little likelihood of coal teamsters being asked to haul from the freight sheds they resolved to be prepared for such a contingency by refusing to touch any articles unloaded from freight cars by nonunion laborers.

ALL EYES ON INDIANAPOLIS.

Action of Miners' Convention Will Have Great Influence on Strike.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 14.—The tenth week of the great anthracite miners' strike may witness the crisis. Everything now depends upon the national convention, which meets at Indianapolis on Thursday. If the convention votes solid support to the hard coal miners now on strike the conflict with the operators may be prolonged indefinitely. On the other hand, should substantial support not be forthcoming, it may have a discouraging effect on the strikers, and the operators, taking advantage of it, may attempt to resume operations at some of the collieries. This is the consensus of opinion as expressed in operators' and strike circles. No effort will be made by any of the large coal companies to start up any of their mines this week. Indianapolis must speak first before any move is made in that direction.

Many of the local assemblies of United Mine Workers of district No. 1 held meetings during the day to give final instructions to their delegates who will represent them in the national convention. Just what the instructions are is not known. It is expected, however, that all the delegates from the anthracite region will vote as a unit in the convention.

Will Exclude the Middlemen.

Berlin, July 14.—A private dispatch received here from Warsaw says the agricultural societies of Poland are negotiating with American manufacturers direct for the purchase of machinery, excluding the German middlemen. This step is believed to be aimed also at German machinery. Several newspapers publish the above dispatch as illustrative of the efforts of Americans to supplant German manufacturers.

Ware Reinstated by the G. A. R.

Fort Scott, Kan., July 14.—Eugene F. Ware, commissioner of pensions, who years ago was a member of William H. Lytle post, G. A. R., of this city and who allowed his membership to lapse, will be reinstated at the next meeting of the post at his request.

Two Boys Drowned.

Detroit, Mich., July 14.—Two boys, Anthony Rukhanp, aged sixteen, and Adolph Budeller, aged eighteen, residents of this city, were drowned in Cass lake, a small body of water twenty-five miles from here. In company with May Wiesler they were rowing. The boat began leaking and finally tipped over before they could reach shore. The girl was saved, but both boys sank before rescuers could get to them.

Says Peace Will Be Short Lived.

Colorado Springs, July 14.—H. C. de Rooy, an adjutant in the Boer war under Delarey, is in the city on a visit. In his opinion peace will not last two years in the Transvaal. The arms turned over to the British are worthless and the good ones have been buried in secret places. He says England is trying to make Englishmen out of the Boers, but when they put on the screws too hard the latter will rebel.

Kills Wife, Shoots Himself

Evansville, Ind., July 14.—Joseph Fenniger, aged thirty years, a coal miner, shot his wife to death in this city because she would not live with him. He then shot himself in the mouth and is in a serious condition.

LORD SALISBURY QUILTS

GREAT BRITAIN'S VENERABLE STATESMAN RETIRES TO PRIVATE LIFE.

IS SUCCEEDED BY BALFOUR

King Edward Elevates the Government Leader in the House of Commons to the Premiership—Resignation of the Veteran Conservative Universally Regretted as Marking the End of the Victorian Era.

London, July 14.—The fact of the resignation of the premiership of Great Britain by Lord Salisbury, as foreshadowed in the dispatches of the Associated Press, was officially given out Sunday evening. The prime minister laid down the responsibility of his office July 11. Within twenty-four hours his majesty elevated Mr. A. J. Balfour, the government's chief representative in the house of commons, to the position of premier.

While it was expected in official and political circles that Lord Salisbury's retirement would be coincident with the coronation of King Edward, it was scarcely looked for prior to that event. Consequently about the only surprise expressed as the news spread through London concerned the date, rather than the fact, of the resignation. The real interest was not so much in reference to Lord Salisbury's withdrawal as it was in the appointment of his successor.

The liveliest speculation is rife as to the personnel of the new cabinet. The most discussed feature of the pending change is the position of Mr. Chamberlain (the colonial secretary), who in many quarters has been regarded as the most promising candidate for the premiership.

Satisfactory to Chamberlain.
A representative of the Associated Press learns that prior to the acceptance of his new office Mr. Balfour first had an interview with Mr. Chamberlain and then consulted with his other cabinet assistants. This is regarded as assurance that the future relative positions of Messrs. Balfour and Chamberlain will be satisfactory to both. Mr. Chamberlain's friends say he always recognized the reversion of the premiership to be Mr. Balfour's right as government leader in the house of commons.

As to Lord Salisbury's withdrawal, the main reason is considered by practically all the best informed persons to have been simply a desire for a quiet life on the part of a man advanced in years, whose activities have been unusual and whose scientific tastes predispose him to study and seclusion. That the retiring premier's health has failed to some extent is undeniable; but this is not more than, perhaps, is to be expected in a man of his years, and the close of the war in South Africa and the return of the commanding general there is considered to be an appropriate time for his withdrawal.

His retirement was practically arranged at an audience of Lord Salisbury with the king a month ago to be coincident with his majesty's coronation, but the king's illness interfered with these plans and compelled Lord Salisbury to wait until his majesty was sufficiently recovered to attend. The Associated Press learns that the desire that no new titles or honors should be conferred upon him. The retirement of this last great statesman of the Victorian age is universally regretted as the transition of one generation to the other and as marking the end of the Victorian era to state business.

Balfour Friendly to America.

Washington, July 14.—The appointment of Mr. Balfour to the English premiership will not result in any change in the existing relations between Great Britain and the United States. This is the opinion of the department officials, who express the opinion that Mr. Balfour will be as much disposed as was his predecessor, Lord Salisbury, to continue the friendly relations between the two countries.

French Papers Complimentary.

Paris, July 14.—The Paris papers regard the resignation of Lord Salisbury as a natural event and look upon the succession of Mr. Balfour as insuring no awkward change of policy. The Gaulois says: "Lord Salisbury may congratulate himself upon leaving the country at the summit of his proud aspirations." The Figaro bears testimony to the retiring premier's great qualities as a diplomat and statesman.

DISCUSSED THE FRIARS.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Root Meet at Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 14.—President Roosevelt and Secretary Root were busily engaged during the day in the consideration of important subjects. One of the important questions discussed by the president and Secretary Root was that relating to Governor Taft's negotiations with the Vatican respecting the Philippine friars. Both Mr. Roosevelt and the secretary of war deem it unwise that the friars should remain in the archipelago with the prestige they now possess. The attitude the friars assume is regarded not only as a menace to the peace of the islands, but also as an obstruction to their government and to the civilization of their inhabitants.

No statement of the conclusions reached by the president and secretary of war could be obtained at Sagamore Hill, but indirectly it is understood that a note is being drafted in response to that transmitted by the pope through Governor Taft to the administration. As Governor Taft started the negotiations it is likely that the reply of this government to the Vatican authorities will be sent through him. Ample assurance is given that the United States government will take strong ground in support of its contention that the friars must be eliminated from the Philippines. It is absolutely certain that no official statement of any phase of the situation will be made public until the negotiations with the Vatican shall have been concluded, and that then the announcement will be made from Washington.

DEFEND THE FRIARS.

Michigan Catholics Adopt Protesting Resolutions.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 14.—A meeting of Catholics was held here to protest against the United States forcing the friars out of the Philippines. All of the Catholic clergy, including Bishop Richter, attended. Resolutions were adopted as follows: "Whereas, the friars as a class are unjustly maligned and are even threatened with expulsion and spoliation of their property. Therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the bishop, clergy and Catholics of the city of Grand Rapids, Mich., as citizens of the United States, protest against all of the wrongs and unjust acts perpetrated on our fellow Catholics in the Philippines. That we appreciate the efforts of Secretary Root to investigate the many wrongs complained of."

Impatiently Awaits an Answer.

Rome, July 14.—The Vatican is impatiently awaiting the communication of President Roosevelt's answer to its propositions, but considers the delay a good omen, as showing that the Washington government is discussing the matter carefully.

THE CROWN PRINCE OF SIAM.

His Visit to the United States Will Be Simple and Quiet.

New York, July 14.—It is learned from authoritative sources that the crown prince of Siam will come to the United States in the same simple manner that he has visited King Edward and the various continental rulers, accompanied only by his brother, the next in succession to the crown prince, and two aides-de-camp, officers in the Siamese army.

The crown prince is in his twenty-first year and for more than eight years has lived in England, speaking and writing the language. He has been educated at Oxford, is president of the Cosmopolitan club of that university and is most simple and unaffected in his manner. He is said to be thoroughly imbued with Western civilization, as also is his father, the king of Siam. He will call on the president and secretary of state officially either in Washington or such other place as the American authorities may designate.

JOHNSON A CANDIDATE.

Cleveland's Mayor Is in the Field for the Presidency.

Cleveland, July 14.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson is in the field for the presidency and will make a tour of the West in the interest of his candidacy, probably this fall.

This statement comes from the mayor or himself. Late Pence, the former Populist member of congress from Colorado, who served in the house with Johnson, was here during the day, and he and the mayor had a long conference. Pence obtained a promise from Johnson to go to Colorado and other Western states to make speeches booming himself for the presidency.

Heretofore the mayor has declined to confirm the report that he is a candidate for the presidency. It is likely that his candidacy from now on will be an open one.

HOT ON THE TRAIL.

Man Hunters Think They Will Bag Tracey in a Few Hours.

Seattle, Wash., July 14.—A special from Enumclaw, Wash., says: The man hunters are once again hot on the trail of Harry Tracey. At 9:30 o'clock the bloodhounds were placed on his track and after following it for three-quarters of a mile lost it in a dense swamp that borders the road leading from here to Buckley. The wires have been kept hot for two hours with messages to surrounding towns and it is believed that Tracey will be either killed or captured inside of twenty-four hours.

Tracey was seen during the day a mile and a half east of Enumclaw.

EXTERMINATION OF FLIES.

Campaign to Be Waged Against the Germ Carriers.

The mosquito having been convicted and sentenced, the fly is now to be brought to the bar of justice, says the New York Evening Post. The charge against the fly is that he is a germ carrier. As long as he was known simply as a nuisance the public was willing simply to provide him with sticky paper to walk on and let it go at that, but now that he is discovered to be an intimate of the microbe and the bacillus the department of agriculture is going to take him in hand. The work of attending to the fly has been turned over to the bureau of entomology, where they call names unfit for publication by reason of their length and the disgraceful manner in which the consonants crowd the vowels and the vowels the consonants. But in this case the bureau has decided to give up its big names and get right down to the people.

The campaign is to be carried on by appealing to the masses, and the intention was to send out a lot of statistics in the usual form. But it seems some one took the bureau of entomology quietly aside and mentioned to it in a frank but kindly manner that the masses do not read statistics; that they would, in fact, run a mile to escape tedious technical studies of the Musca domestica, the Stomoxys calcitrans, the Drosophila ampelophila, the Homalomyia canicularis and all the various and frightful species of house flies, stable flies, fruit flies and high flies that beset us. So the householder is to be told plainly in ordinary English to keep his premises clean and to offer no possible germ enriched feeding ground from which flies may carry disease on their feet to the food in the kitchen and dining room. Pamphlets are being sent out by the division of entomology to health boards, physicians, committees and individuals in all parts of the country, and while this is doing experiments are under way to discover more effective means of carrying on the war against the fly.

How He Walked.

A sergeant drill instructor was endeavoring to make clear to the recruits he was drilling the meaning of the word "smartly."

He walked across the square in the manner the word indicates. "Now, men, tell me how I walk?"

One raw recruit almost paralyzed the sergeant by blurted out:
"Bowlegged, sergeant."—Regiment.

Spiders.

Spiders are an unsocial, misanthropical race at the best of times and usually regard each other with the most uncompromising aversion. This illbitter all social intercourse, so that a spider wandering by accident into his brother's web is received in a manner that if "a little more than kin" is certainly "less than kind." Instead of hospitably entertaining his visitor mine host either drops by a fine thread and disappears from view or promptly prepares to fight him. Eviction is not his object, but capture, with ulterior designs upon the body, which with a wise forethought the master of the house already destined for the larder.

But putting aside these prudent considerations it is a grand albeit a savage sight to witness the encounter when the combatants are well matched for size and strength—the cautious advance, with a delicate testing of threads on both sides; the wily feint, followed by a precipitate retreat, and wild dangle of the hero suspended in midair, and then the headlong rush and death grapple, hand to hand, foot to foot, which is rendered very impressive when six legs are brought into active requisition at once on either side.—London Opinion.

Mushrooms Easily Grown.

Any one may raise mushrooms in his cellar or even in his attic with very satisfactory results.

He should have a bed which may consist of a shallow box, and this should be filled with a dark, rich loam to the depth of, say, eight inches. It should be in a dark place, and a damp place also is beneficial, but if he uses an attic the room may be kept dark by heavy curtains and the earth damp by frequent watering. An average temperature of from 60 to 70 degrees should be maintained. Almost all seedlings sell the spawn bricks, and when the bed is prepared the spawn should be broken into fine surface particles and just covered with the earth.

Notwithstanding the popular belief, mushrooms do not come up in a night, but they do in four or five nights, and when once up their growth is very rapid.—Exchange.

Fifth District Congressman.

Sauk Rapids Sentinel: The situation in the Sixth congressional district as to the republican nominee is apparently what the Sentinel predicted months ago while schemes of other parties were being exploited, and mud being thrown at Senator Buckman. The mud didn't stick, but seemed in the eyes of the people to have rather a beautifying effect on the Senator, so much so that most of the throwers have come to regard his appearance politically as altogether lovely, which shows that political heretics can be sensible if they have occasion to be so, which is this case. Thus far Senator Buckman's only opponent for the nomination is a gentleman named Foster, of Litchfield, who is reputed from that vicinity to be a man of good abilities and of good standing at home; but he is comparatively a new man in the district and not generally known, and we have never heard of his having done much in a business way in the district. This matter constitutes no legal point against him, and is not an absolute essential but the long residence of Senator Buckman in the district and his immense business transactions in which he has furnished employment to thousands of men who have been well satisfied with their treatment at his hands, must count greatly to his advantage to say nothing of his contact during his official service with the leading men of the district. It is with no desire or intent to disparage the abilities or the chances of any other aspirant, that we express the opinion that Senator Buckman will easily become the nominee of his party, and just as easily be elected.

NEW AUTOMOBILE.
A Carriage Which Condenses Its Own Steam.
A new style of steam automobile has just appeared and is attracting considerable attention among those who favor the steam machines, says the New York Tribune. The vehicle in question condenses its own steam and, according to the makers, will travel a hundred miles on six gallons of water. It is one of the first steam machines built on the lines of the foreign gasoline carriages. The makers have also tried to get as far away as possible from the shaftless style. The machine is arranged for carrying six persons.

Misinterpreted.
A delicate point of pronunciation is involved in this story. A country cousin once went to spend Sunday with an Edinburgh friend. After a long day spent in sightseeing they found themselves a long way from home. "Noo, mon," said the townsman, "we've a long way to gang. Shall we tak' a tram?" "Tak' a tram?" cried the other in surprise. "Ye dinna mean to tell me that in Edinburgh the public houses are open on the Sawbath?"

A Madding Legacy.
A young man at St. Mende was driven mad by a legacy of $4,000. From the moment the money came into his possession he was oppressed by the fear of losing it and always carried it about with him. He finally made a bonfire of it in the form of notes and then attempted to blow out his brains. —London Chronicle.

One of Our Pet Phrases.
"Did any of the inhabitants escape with his life?" inquired the man who wants harrowing details. "I didn't stop to ascertain," answered the man who is harrowingly exact. "It struck me that if anybody escaped without his life there wasn't much use in his escaping anyhow." —Washington Star.

No Help From Her.
"Miss Frisbie—Ellen, love," said young Mr. Gallagher timidly, "I have lost my heart." "I'm sorry I can't help you, Mr. Gallagher," replied the maiden not unkindly. "I haven't found it." —Detroit Free Press.

SUMMER SCHOOL
OPENED TODAY

Prof. Andrew Nelson is in Charge with an Able Corps of Assistants.

COURSES OFFERED ARE GOOD.

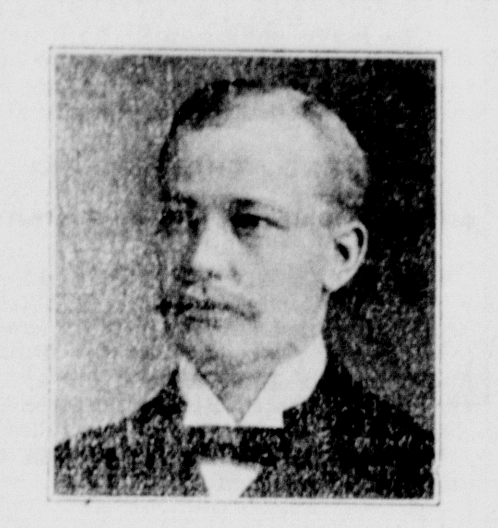

The Enrollment Will Include
Many Teachers Outside of Crow Wing Co.

The Brainerd summer school opened this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Washington school building in this city and there was a good enrollment to start with. Prof. Andrew Nelson arrived in the city last night and he will conduct the school this year assisted by Prof. O. T. Denny, Miss Sadie Geer and Miss Julia E. L. Moore. The Misses Geer and Moore arrived in the city Saturday afternoon and Prof. Denny arrived this afternoon.

Two courses will be offered those who may attend the school.

The first course will be for those who desire to prepare for second grade certificates and will include all the studies belonging to that grade.

The second course will be made especially helpful to those who wish to prepare themselves for the first grade examinations. In this course teachers will have an opportunity to review thoroughly the following branches: Elementary Algebra, Plane Geometry, Physics and Physical Geography.

PROF. NELSON.

Ever since the state certificate law went into effect in 1899, the salaries commanded by those who hold first grade certificates have increased.

PROF. DENNY.

Ambitious teachers can, by diligent self study and attendance at a training school for a term or two, prepare themselves for a desirable position.

In both courses much attention will be given to the methods of presenting the subject to a class, as well as the subject matter itself. The classes in primary methods under the direction of Miss Sadie Geer, will be especially valuable to teachers. In connection with this work a model class of children will be conducted during the entire term.

MISS MOORE.

The children of this class will call at the Washington school building tomorrow morning. The first work in this class will commence at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Classes will be organized in Music and Physical Culture. Practical questions of school management will be taken up and fully discussed. Two or three interesting and instructive lectures will be given during the month.

NORTH END GOSSIP.

Miss Ada Davis' school is now closed for the summer.

The copious rains of the past few days have made crop prospects look bright.

Mr. Poster and family, of Aitkin, were up visiting his Daggett Brook stock farm last week.

Mrs. Thos. Kenedy presented her better half with a fine girl baby on the 17th ult. but we have not had a smoke yet.

The Daggett Brook drive is now in Crow lake and will soon be sluiced through the Pine river dam. Thos. Kenedy in charge.

The succulent blueberry has begun to assume a bluish tint and the juvenile population with their tin pail are in evidence accordingly.

Mr. Willis and family have arrived from Iowa and are living in Mr. Leamer's house until they get a house built on their homestead.

Now that Henry Steirbach, one of the saw mill trio, has broken the ice and taken a wife there is hope that more of the bachelor boys will do likewise.

New potatoes, radishes, lettuce and green onions and peas are something that we can trot out up here on the 4th inst. Now who says this is an arctic region?

Amos Oldenberg has his new house about completed and if some of the girls will hold their face just right maybe they can get a permanent situation as housekeeper for him.

Horace Butterfield and Jonas Buchite had an exciting chase after a huge black bear recently, but when his bearship got into the thick timber Butterfield said he was not bear hungry anyway and let him go.

The gent that wrote the foolish letter to the Eagle Lake schoolmarm and signed another man's name to it has been found out, and he wants to be very discreet in future or he may have the fun of having the charge of forgery preferred against him.

Jeff Saunders, our genial game warden, and three gentlemen from Brainerd were up this way the 6th inst., ostensibly for a fishing bout, but there is a knowing smirk on the faces of some of the residents. Hope Jeff catches the fish he is really after.

H. G. Butterfield is in receipt of a letter from his brother Frank, who recently left Nebraska and went to Missoula, Mont., and he is very sorry he did so. He is expecting to come to Crow Wing county some time this summer and will locate permanently if the country suits himself and family.

The charivari that Mr. and Mrs. Steinbach got on the eve of their return home, will be remembered for a long while by the recipients, that is if a diabolic noise can make any impression upon one's memory. Henry done the handsome act though by handing out a box of good cigars to the boys.

Hans Hansen, of Brainerd, is another addition to our new settlement, he having located at Duck lake, on Little Pine river. This is a new settlement, the first family located there only last summer, and now the whole township is taken but 80 acres. They have had one term of school and have a nice log school house and are prepared to welcome all new comers.

LITTLE FALLS SHUT OUT BY BRAINERD

Dr. Watkins had the Gold Dust Boys at his Mercy in Yesterday's Game.

BARBERS BEAT THE PRINTERS.

The Small Score of 26 to 6 was made at the Game Yesterday Morning.

Brainerd 7, Little Falls 0. The team from Little Falls played Brainerd yesterday in this city and it was demonstrated beyond a doubt that the Gold Dusts' are not in the same class with Brainerd at all. Inability to connect with the ball with a few errors, made it an easy victory for the home boys. Dr. Watkins was in the box for Brainerd and he pitched a great game. They got only three hits off him and he struck out eleven. His work in the box was a feature of the game, and it delighted the large crowd that was out to see the game.

It was a clean shutout for the downriver boys and they feel a rather down in the dumps. Ferrell who was in the box for them was fount for eleven good clean hits, and he succeeded in throwing out only two men. Rasch was substituted in the eighth, but it was too late and he was no better.

Corrigan appeared for the first time with the Brainerd team yesterday in his right position, behind the bat. He is a catcher with few equals and his excellent work was a feature of the game. Sam Englebreton who has held down this position was played on third, and played a pretty game.

The excursion train from Little Falls brought in about 250 people. They had money with them too, but "cold feet" took them after the second inning, and some $500 of Brainerd money went begging. A few good bets were made and the Brainerd men were happy.

Not a man on the Little Falls team saw third base yesterday and for a time it looked as though they would not see second base. Swindell, the first man up for Little Falls, fanned the air and thus sort of took the tuck out of them and they went out in almost one, two three order. Wulling flied out to Howe and Holt went out at first. Brainerd started right in the first to pile up scores. Flynn got life, but Corrigan's long drive to the right garden was gathered in, Flynn scoring. Englebreton got life at first on an error by Bourasa, and Bemis, with his old time vim, hit the old ball for a two bagger, scoring Englebreton. Howe struck out and Peterson went to first on a fly popup to Wulling at short. This gave Brainerd two in the lead. In the next three innings neither team scored.

In the fifth again Brainerd took a fall out of Farrell and managed to score three more men. Flynn got life on an error. Rasch at first and Corrigan worked for a base on balls. Englebreton made a two bagger, scoring Flynn and Corrigan. Bemis went out to Swendell. Two more scores were made in the sixth and this was all there was to it. The game was really so easy for Brainerd that there is little to be said.

The following is the summary of the game:

Struck out by Watkins, 12; by Ferrell, 3. Two base hits, Englebreton two, Peterson, Murphy, Watkins two Bemis, St. John. Base on balls, off Watkins, 1; off Ferrell, 3. Umpire, Smith. Scorer, Murphy.

Barbers, 26; Printers 6. Yesterday morning there was a bluff at a game of base ball at Brainerd Athletic park, when the printers assayed to go in for bloody gore against a team picked from the barbers of the city. It was so sided that those in the grand stand lost sight of the truly good features of the game and even the score board fell down of its own accord from the weight of the big score piled up by the barbers. The "prints" who thought they could play ball were no better than a lot of dummies. Fred Britton, a youth of sombre shade had tipped his mitt that he could pitch ball, but here is where he fell in the well. After the first two or three innings, the barbers hitting him freely for singles, twobaggers and home runs, his face began to look like a soft boiled egg in the bottom of a picnic basket. Then Griffith thought he could pitch a stroke but his work was so much on the hog that he was jerked out after that one inning. Nothing daunted Pinkney, he who thought he had been using his nuddle to good advantage went in and began to spit on his dobbars but he too was much like the other slab "artists" slightly on the bum, although he did manage to get one or two over the rubber. So much for the "talaot" in the box.

Frank Hall had been telling his brother "prints" how he used to play first base in 1878, but he got his wires crossed and looked like a man trying to flag a train with a dirty red shirt.

Sherman, who is six feet ten in his stocking feet tried to play "short," but after making a grand stand fly catch with one hand, a la Frank Howe, he never got a thing, not even the ball that was stopped by hitting him on the hoof. After going through a few maneuvers as though playing ping pong, running a base or two, and drinking a gallon of green pop, he looked like a bicycle tire well punctured.

Thompson, Ponth and Brown were out in the field. Thompson should have played with a tennis racket, for he certainly couldn't stop a ball with that "big mitt" on a bet and as for Brown and Ponth, they were caught napping several times out in the field Ed thought he could catch a stroke or two, but Baitton's corkscrews never touched him.

When it came to batting this is where the "prints" did shine. Their "stick" work was certainly very fierce and if the whole bunch fell off a load of hay they would not hit the ground.

The barbers had a fairly good line-up and they didn't do a thing but soak the old ball right and left. Young Stallman was in the box and he is quite an artist, and with the coaching of the "old man" right back of him he pitched a good game. Warren behind the bat was good, but his base running was off color, he going around the diamond like an ice wagon. The joke of the day was "Napoleon" LaJoie, who has it in his sky piece that he can hit the ball. He played fast and furious, and really scored a few hits, and now, he is all swelled up like a poisoned pup.

Stallman at short caught a few nice ones and Bourgeois at third played with vim. Carl played a good game at first. In fact they all played ball.

The sympathy of the printers is with M. J. Reilly, who was subjected to the galling process of sitting in the grand stand to see his fair name trailed in the dust and besmirched upon.

Of course H. I. Cohen had a smile on and was good natured all the way through. There was considerable fun to the game and just as a side issue the public library netted $20, and the printers feel like ten cents worth of dog meat. The conquering heroes are challenged by the city officials.

CLEMENT GETS A DINKY VERDICT

Only $225 Given Him by the Jury In the Damage Suit Just Tried.

NO DAMAGE AGAINST SANBORN

The Case of Graham Bros. vs. the Northern Pacific Express Company on Trial.

The case of C. B. Clement vs. O. P. Erickson and J. T. Sanborn was completed this morning and it went to the jury just before the noon hour. The case went to the jury under instructions from Judge McClenahan in which they were instructed to return a verdict for the plaintiff in so far as the defendant, O. P. Erickson was concerned. Of course this gave the jury the right to fix the amount of damage, be it much or little.

The case has been rather hard fought. Attorney Olney of Swift was here appearing for the plaintiffs C. B. Clement. He went away this noon feeling confident that the jury would give them a substantial verdict.

The readers of the DISPATCH, will remember that this is the case wherein Clement brings suit to recover $5000 damages from O. P. Erickson and J. T. Sanborn for what he claims to be false imprisonment and extortion. Judge Alderman and Judge Fleming appeared for the defendants and it is said that the argument to the jury by Judge Alderman this morning was one of the most forcible that has been heard for sometime.

The jury this afternoon brought in a verdict of $225 against O. P. Erickson and nothing against J. T. Sanborn.

The case of Graham Bros. vs. the Northern Pacific Express Co. was taken up this afternoon. F. C. Hale, of Minneapolis, represents the company and Polk & Polk appear for the plaintiffs. Graham Bros. sent a large consignment of fish to St. Paul some time this spring and they were seized by the fish and game commission and the suit is brought in this connection.

An Animal College.

The above interesting, education institution, is conducted permanently in the city where Gentry Bros., the famous animal trainers, make their home. A large building built of red brick and modeled in a most up-to-date manner is devoted exclusively to the education of, and improving intelligently the vast number of animals used in the performances of their famous shows. A systematic course of tuition is given each scholar and when their education has been completed, entitling them to perform some act, they are immediately given a place in programme of the show. This institution is maintained at no little expense, and the animals which are seen in the performances given in the Gentry Bros. United Shows may be easily termed "College Bred Animals". A long list of new aspirants for fame in the arena have been added this season, and Gentry Bros. famous Shows are said to be exactly twice their size. The exhibition day for this city is Friday, July 18.

Bids Wanted.

Bids will be received up to 10 a. m. July 21st, at auditor's office for new road from bridge across Chas. Ahren's land, Section 26, T. 134, R. 28. Right reserved to reject any and all bids. 34-17 By order of Committee.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEET.

Routine Business is Transacted and Petitions for Formation of School Districts Received.

A meeting of the county commissioners is being held today at the court house and all members are present. Nothing much beyond the transaction of routine business was done this morning, although several petitions were read. The offer of E. W. Lynch to pay 50 per cent of the taxes, interest and penalty on 21 lots in the city was accepted.

The petition for the formation of a new school district from the east one half of town 43, range 28, the same being unorganized territory, was received and on motion duly granted. The new district will be known as No. 75.

The board will be in session most of tomorrow again.

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake is made by Many Brainerd Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of back-ache.

To be cured you must know the cause.

It is wrong to imagine relief is cure.

Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys.

A Brainerd resident tells you how this can be done.

Mr. J. Hagadorn, of 123 Ninth St. north says: "For thirty years I had more or less trouble with my kidneys. Some attacks laid me up while during others my back ached so severely that I could not sleep at night nor work during the day. On many occasions I could not stand and talk to a man for two or three minutes without suffering with twinges across the small of my back which radiated towards the shoulders. As time passed by the complaint became more pronounced and difficulty with the kidney secretions set in. As might be expected I tried everything when the attacks occurred to check them, but if I had met with any marked degree of success I never would have reported to Doan's Kidney Pills. When suffering severely I went to a drug store and got a box. I expected the results would be similar to those obtained by using other preparations. In twenty-four hours I changed my mind. I noticed they were acting totally different to anything hitherto tried, and encouraged I kept on with the treatment until I finished two boxes. Now I may have recurrences but at the present moment, and it is some time since I stopped the treatment, I have not a symptom of my old complaint. To any one interested I will be only too pleased to give minutest details and substantiate the above statement in a personal interview."

Sold for 50 cents a box, at the McFadden Drug Co., H. P. Dunn & Co. and all druggists. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Cancer and Consumption Cured In Duluth.

These diseases cured by the Actinic or Violet Ray Light cure that has been used with great success in Europe and New York City. In the latter place hundreds are being treated daily by this wonderful light. Absolute cures are being effected and all who try it are benefited. The treatment consists in powerful rays of light from a 500 candle power lamp which are passed through condensing lenses and thrown on the affected parts. These rays of light destroy the germs of disease without injury to the healthy tissue. It quickly relieves the pains of cancer, the severe coughing in consumption and heals all running sores. It is absolutely painless. Already a number of Duluth and Superior people have been treated with astonishing results. For particulars address,

THE DEAD NUMBER 114

FULL EXTENT OF THE MINE DIS-ASTER AT JOHNSTOWN, PA.,
NOW KNOWN.

GIVEN OVER TO FUNERALS

Sunday a Large Number of the Victims of the Explosion Were Buried in the Different Cemeteries—Twenty-five Interred in One Large Grave.
Sight-seers From Surrounding Towns
Flock to the Stricken City.

Johnstown, Pa., July 14.—Two more deaths of rescued victims of the Rolling Mill mine disaster occurred during the day. John Sohr and Yasante Sibolla expired at the Cambria hospital. These deaths raise the total fatalities to 114, although the company's records have it one less. Much confusion has attended the compilation of the record. It is generally regarded as certain that the full extent of the disaster is now known. Mine Superintendent G. T. Robinson said:

"I would not like to assert that there are no more bodies in the mine, but I don't think there are. There may be a few."
Most interest centered during the day in the funeral obsequies which were scattered throughout the city.
The black cloud of mourning was heaviest over Cambria City, where the foreign population dwells. It was a grim fete day in which the number of participants was augmented by throngs the morning trains brought in. The outsiders came from towns within a radius of fifty miles or more. These visitors spread themselves out in squares and took in the various points of interest associated with the tragedy. To the foot of the tramway leading up to the main pit mouth all paid a visit. Hundreds gathered there at a time in the vain hope of seeing newly discovered bodies brought forth to gratify their curious gaze.

All the churches of Johnstown paid more or less attention in their morning services to the disaster. Collections were lifted in many for the benefit of the bereft families of the poorer victims. Special masses were said in the Catholic churches.
The afternoon was devoted to funerals. Over Cambria City the deep intonations of tolling bells rolled their clamorous wail of grief. Hands poured out mournful dirges through almost every thoroughfare and more than once the sweet strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," told significantly

The Sadness of the Occasion.
Catholic societies were out in their regalia. The national flag hung limp and lifeless in the still air, while among its folds were mingled streamers of mourning. Incessantly processions moved out and along Chestnut street toward the Catholic cemeteries near Morrellville.

On Fourth street, where St. Stephen's Catholic church stands, the street was blocked for squares by thousands of spectators, carriages and mourners.
The funerals there commenced at 2 o'clock. The church was filled with affecting expressions of grief. Five coffins at one time were distributed in front of the altar. At 3 o'clock they commenced to leave for the cemetery.
As the throngs commenced to evacuate the church the bells broke forth into wild ringing.

Around the corner at St. Mary's Greek Catholic church there were being held services for the dead simultaneously with those at St. Stephen's.
Further down the street the Cretians were having their funerals. In all the foreign churches the congregations displayed emblems of their societies.
Variegated colors were worn by the women, robbing the scene somewhat of its mournful character.

All night Saturday workmen dug graves in the Morrellville cemeteries.
By morning they had enough completed to care for the day's arrivals and for those who were taken to the cemetery entrance on Saturday and had to be stored in a barn until excavations could be made for them.

The burial was simplified by the digging of long trenches in place of separate graves. In one of these twenty-five coffins were lowered.

THE PORTLAND HEARD FROM.

Missing teamer Arrived at St.
Michael July 3.

Seattle, Wash., July 14.—A special
from Dawson says:
The steamer Portland arrived at St.
Michael July 2 and left next day for Port Townsend. The news was brought to Eagle by the steamer Sarah, which reached there during the day, and advices were wired to the Dawson agent of the Northern Commercial company.

The Sarah got the news by wire at Nulato. The Portland was in good condition and all her passengers and crew were well. The cargo was in good order.

Nothing has been reported by the Sarah regarding the Jeanie. The Sarah is due at Dawson during the night, but she is not expected to have further advices. Two more lower river steamers are also due.

J. B. Tyrell, the Northern Canadian explorer now in Dawson, says the instruments found near Great Fish River a few days ago are not his. He thinks they were Andre's and that the Esquimaux killed Andre.

General Thomas J. A. Morgan Dead.

New York, July 14.—General Thomas J. A. Morgan, who has been ill at his home in Yonkers, died during the day, aged sixty-two. Death was due to kidney disease. General Morgan was born in Franklin, Ind. At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted as a private and rose to the rank of brevet brigadier general. President Harrison made him commissioner of Indian affairs. At the time of his death General Morgan was secretary of the Home Mission society of the Baptist church. The body will be taken to Rochester, N. Y., for burial.

RESTORATION OF TIENSIN.

Foreign Ministers to China Agree Upon Conditions.

Peking, July 14.—The foreign ministers to China have agreed upon the conditions for the restoration of the government of Tientsin to China, and these conditions await only the signature of the Italian minister, the Marquis Salvago Raggi, who is absent, for presentation to the Chinese government. According to the conditions the thirty kilometre radius, from which Chinese troops are excluded, is reduced to twenty kilometres, the limitation of the number of police within the radius is eliminated and the concessions granted by the provisional government are ignored.

The members of the government are considering the question of devoting
the supplies in the treasury to the reimbursement of the concessionaires for investments made on the strength of their concessions.

THE DREAM OF HIS LIFE.

Rabbi Eisner of Baltimore Will End
His Days in Jerusalem.

Baltimore, July 14.—Rev. Joseph Eisner, Jewish rabbi and prominently associated with High Street synagogue, will leave Baltimore during the day with his wife for New York,
from which port they will sail en route to Jerusalem, where they expect to end their days. The Rev. Eisner came to this country from Poland, settling in Baltimore, where he identified himself with synagogue work and built up a large commercial business. He has long been identified with the Zionist movement, but he says he goes there now purely as an independent individual, his going being the realization of a dream long cherished to make his home in the land of his fathers.

A Fast of Sixty-two Days.

Anderson, Ind., July 14.—Mrs.
Amanda George, seventy years old,
died at the spiritualist camp ground
here after a fast of sixty-two days.
Mrs. George was afflicted with stomach trouble and had refused all solid and liquid nourishment for the entire sixty-two days.

caragua declares that Bluefields has not been taken by revolutionists, as has been reported. Government reports announce the capture July 7 of a number of revolutionists near Bluefields.

An Idol With Diamond Eyes.

It is a curious fact and one scarcely known outside of Russia, and there hardly ever mentioned, that the famous Orloff diamond was once the right eye of the great idol Serringham in the temple of Brahma. This precious gem was stolen at about the beginning of the eighteenth century by a French soldier who had made a pretense of being converted to the Hindoo religion in order to gain the confidence of the priests and admission to the temple. The Frenchman first sold the diamond for £2,000. On the next turn it was bought by a banker of Constantinople for £12,000. The banker kept it until 1774 and then sold it to the Russian empress for £90,000 and a life pension. The gem has been in the Russian royal family ever since. As it is now set in the imperial scepter of Russia it presents a flattened, rose cut surface and weighs exactly 194½ carats.

Vanity Ticked.

During the early excesses of the French revolution a rabble of men and women were rioting in the streets of Paris. Lafayette appeared and ordered a young artillery officer to open fire upon them, with two cannon. The officer begged the general to let him try first to persuade them to withdraw.
"It is useless to appeal to their reason," said the general.

"Certainly," answered the officer,
"and it is not to their reason, but to their vanity, I would appeal."

The officer rode up to the front of the mob, doffed his cocked hat, pointed to the guns and said:

"Gentlemen will have the kindness to retire, for I am ordered to shoot down
the rabble."

Why He Wasn't Impressed.

The following story is told of a gar-rulous victim of the Johnstown flood of 1889, who when he reached paradise ascended a cloud that served within the pearly gates as a rostrum and undertook to thrill his new made acquaintances among the shades with an account of the disaster through which he had passed. He was interrupted by a gray bearded old man in the group. "A mere bucketful—a mere bucketful!" the old fellow piped.
"Don't waste so much time talking of a small affair like that!"

The Johnstown man resented this and hunted up St. Peter, of whom he asked, "Who is that old codger who seems to think our flood such a trifling matter?"
"That?" said St. Peter. "Why, that's Noah!"

A Church In Wales.

Wrexham parish church is known as one of the seven wonders of Wales. It dates as a structure from the fifteenth century and is cathedral-like in its proportions. A "chained" Bible, now kept under lock and key, is among the curious relics, and beside it is a handsomely bound "visitors' book," sent by the students of Yale university, United States, for the use of Yale students visiting the church. In the churchyard is the tombstone of Elhu Yale, with its quaint epitaph. The soldiers' chapel, which is entered through an exquisite arch, has a beautiful memorial window to the Welsh fusiliers who have fallen in battle.

Won't Stay Retained.

This notice appears on a Flushing steambot: "Passengers should obtain a receipt for all provisions taken on board this boat and are requested to retain the same."
Easier said than done! It reminds us of the old Limerick:

There was a young man of Ostend
Who said he'd hold out till the end,
But when half way over
From Ostend to Dover
He did what he didn't intend.
—London Globe.

Hedgehogs and Eggs.

Some years ago, not being able to account for the disappearance of eggs, a wire cage trap was set in a fowl run.
After a little time this was occupied—
not by a rat, but a fine hedgehog filled to its utmost capacity the trap. It was reset, to be filled in a few days by Mrs. Hedgehog! No more eggs were missed.—London Times.

Rebuked.

Higgins—How is it you are always tiding about? I never see you when you have anything to do.

Wiggins—The fact is, it takes so much of my time looking after other folks' business I have none left for looking after my own. Don't you find something like the same trouble yourself?—Boston Transcript.

Poor Closets.

"And, you see, there are plenty of closets," said the flat owner, showing a lady through the apartments.
"Do you call those closets?" replied the lady. "Why, gracious me, they're not big enough to even keep our family skeleton in!"—Yonkers Statesman.

Remembers the Kindnesses.

"He says his proudest boast is that he never forgets a kindness."
"That's right. He never does forget one that he does you, and he won't let you forget it either."—Philadelphia
